

October 30 & 31, 2021

Sight is an indispensable sense. But even if our eyes work, we might not truly see. Where we focus our attention dictates how we live our lives. What are we searching for? What are we chasing? Jesus came to open the eyes of the blind – not just physically, but spiritually. He transforms our vision so we can see clearly, and gain the right perspective in life. Knowing Jesus necessarily changes every aspect of our lives.

Knowing Jesus necessarily changes every aspect of our lives

- Knowing Jesus is the one we've waited for brings assurance
- Knowing Jesus frees us to see differently
- Knowing Jesus frees us to speak differently
- Knowing Jesus frees us to live differently
- Knowing about Jesus is not enough – we have to really know Him

Questions for Reflection:

- Who do you most identify with from today's passage?
- Where are you focusing your eyes? Is your focus on Jesus, bringing life, or something else?
- In what ways is Jesus calling to you see/speak/live differently?
