March 16 &amp; 17, 2019

Do you enjoy entering a display home? You walk through the entrance, feel the ambiance, check out the den, stroll through the living room, envision the dining area and visit the bedrooms to determine who gets which room. As you walk through, you imagine how you might decorate the home, and occupy and fill its rooms with life.

Now, imagine that the home represents your personal life; with many rooms (entrance, living room, family room, den, study room, and bedrooms). How many rooms of your life does Jesus occupy?

Imagine that your home has rooms of the past (disappointments, wounds, and regrets), rooms of the present (doubts, fears and anxieties) and rooms of the future (plans and dreams). How many rooms does Jesus have permission to enter?

Do we want to hear Jesus' heart for us?

1. Take note of who wants to enter the rooms of your life
2. Know that you desperately need to have Jesus enter the rooms of your life
3. Know that only Jesus can bring life and healing to your rooms
4. Know that only you can open the door of your heart to Jesus, so open it
5. Know that Jesus holds the door open in Heaven
Prepare to go through it
