June 23 & 24, 2018

Living life today, without a sure compass, is extremely difficult. Trusting in our own intuition, abilities, and life experiences to guide us will frustrate us and lead us to ever greater levels of anxiety. For some, the lack of a true north will be life-threatening.

Smartphones and GPS will get us to Costco, but they will not guide us through life. Do we have a sure compass that will always guide us in the right direction, no matter what the circumstance? Peter concludes his letter with some critical final reminders. What are his last words?

1. Our whole story, from beginning to end, depends on the God of all grace. We are...
 - a. Called by God
 - b. Completed by God
 - c. Covered by God

2. In light of who God is, we are invited to...
 - a. Stand committed to the true grace
 - b. Walk with the community of grace
 - c. Walk within the reality of His calm
