

GLOBAL HOTSPOTS

Sundays at 10:00 - 11:15am in Room 3090

If you want to get a current glimpse of what is going in the lives and ministries of Willingdon missionaries, this is the place to be. We hear reports from visiting long-term missionaries, commission short-term teams as they head out to the field, pray for specific nations, and engage in strategic Kingdom work by praying. This is a great first step for you if you are thinking of engaging in global mission.

July 21 & 22, 2018

We all go through life with expectations. Expectations of ourselves, of others, and of God. What do you expect from God? Do your expectations of God hinder your spiritual growth? What do you base your expectations on? As we study the story of the exodus of the people of Israel, we can see how their expectations limited their relationships with God as well as their ability to enjoy His care for them. Today's message will guide us through their story and help us to apply the timeless truths of God's word to understand His leading and care for our lives today.

1. We come to life and God with our own pre-set expectations
2. Human instinct is to blame people and God for our problems
3. When we think like slaves we miss out on God's goodness and care
4. In spite of our unbelief God is gracious and cares for us
5. Learn from the mistakes of others and choose to follow Jesus today
