July 28 & 29, 2018

Sometimes bad things come in threes. After Israel left Egypt they faced one trial after another. First they ran out of water. Then they ran out of food. And then all of a sudden they were attacked by a foreign army. But, all throughout these trials, God is powerfully at work on behalf of His people. Will they trust Him enough to do what He tells them? Let's find out.

God does what we can't do for ourselves

But He doesn't do what we must do for ourselves

1. Where have you seen God come through in your life?
2. In which areas of life are you currently depending upon God to do what only He can do?
3. What's something that you can step into that would force you to trust God even more?
