July 7 & 8, 2018

Exodus is the history of Israel's salvation. It also reveals the pattern of salvation for us in Jesus. The New Testament describes the work of Jesus in Exodus language. And, just as the Exodus sets the pattern of salvation for us, so the wilderness journey sets the pattern for the disciple's journey.

God did not give Israel a wilderness experience just to have an experience. Rather, He carved their experience into living truth, so that we might learn from history and not ignore it. Can we agree to learn from history today?

1. Realize you are on a spiritual journey, designed by God, for your good and growth
2. Before complaining when facing a challenge, turn your face to God and expect God to reveal Himself!
3. Learn to trust and obey the voice of Yahweh, your Healer
4. In the oasis moments of life, rest and remember the lessons. It will prepare you for the journey ahead
