September 1 & 2, 2018

Most of us would say, “less is more” is bad math. “More is more.” That’s not always the case in God’s economy. The world we live in is preoccupied with “more.” More money, more experiences, more personal rights and freedoms, more, more, more. Over the past few weeks we have learned how sometimes more is less and less is more. More of what I want can lead to less of what is good for me. In today’s message we’ll explore how in God’s economy we will experience more of what we need when we have less of what we “want”.

1. Do less so you know God more
2. Do less so you trust God more
3. Do less so you rest in God more
