LIFE GROUPS

1. Take some time to catch up. How did this week go? What steps of obedience did you take and what has God been teaching you?
2. Jesus meets with Nicodemus in John 3 and the Samaritan woman in John 4. Take some time to list all the differences between the two of them. What do these differences show us about who Jesus came for?
3. Jesus overcomes many barriers to reach out to this woman. List some of those barriers. What barriers exist between you and the people you want to reach with the Gospel? What emotions do you have when you focus on these barriers?
4. Read John 4:35. The disciples had a hard time thinking of Samaria as a 'harvest field' for the Gospel. How would things change if instead of looking at people and seeing barriers, you saw a potential new brother or sister in Christ?
5. Read Jeremiah 2:13. Make a list of things that promise to give life and fulfillment, but in the end are empty cisterns. Talk about things that you personally have looked to for life and fulfillment.
6. How do you feel led to respond to this week's message and text? Are there steps of obedience you feel the Spirit asking you to take? How can we pray for you as a group?

Please pray for Willingdon missionary Siang Chiang. She serves as a mission mobilizer for OM's Ship Ministry. To learn more about Siang's ministry, listen to Episode 18 of the Willingdon On Mission Podcast (available on the website, Willingdon app, and iTunes).

October 13 & 14, 2018

We live in a world of images. We draw from many streams and create our own clothing styles, foods, careers, and spiritual paths. We live in a world of fusion and tolerance. Obviously, there are cracks in our created images, but we would rather not unveil them. In this world of fusion and tolerance, how do we sift through the layers of our hearts in order to talk about what really matters? Why would we be motivated to enter the uneasy, uncomfortable territory?

1. Jesus slices through...

a. Cultural and gender barriers

b. Sensitive emotional and moral barriers

c. Religious and defense mechanism barriers

2. Jesus slices through the barriers of our broken wells

a. So that our wells might be healed

b. So that our wells might become springs of water welling up with life

c. So that we might see our Samaritans as He sees them
