July 27 &amp; 28, 2019

The Bible refers to adultery as the “great sin.” Let’s just admit that it is hard for us to understand. In our individualistic, North American society where the interests of the individual are, or ought to be, ethically paramount, where we say to ourselves, “What is good for me is what serves me.” It is hard for us to embrace any kind of restriction outside of our own desires. Why would it be called the “great sin” in Scripture?

1. Contemplate the meaning of the seventh word
2. Celebrate God’s design for marriage:
  - a. A profound one flesh union
  - b. A union that models God’s permanent faithfulness to us
  - c. The bearing wall under which children learn faithful love
  - d. A union that models Jesus’ eternal union with us
  - e. A union that creates life!
3. Care for the eyes of your heart
4. Confess your sins to the One who can restore you
5. Cultivate an intimate relationship with God, your spouse, and your church family
