February 8 & 9, 2020

As a child, when I thought I had been caught doing something wrong my dad was quiet. It was never a comfortable silence. Why wasn't he saying something? Was he just calculating how severe the punishment was going to be? Was it possible he had not noticed? Was I going to get away with this one? Would he consider a plea for mercy?

Why would God be silent?

1. Know that prayer moves the sovereign hand of history
 - a. Every moment in Revelation's drama is bathed in prayer
 - b. In the waiting silence, God hears our prayers and prepares for action
 - c. God executes judgement and overcomes evil in response to prayer
2. Know that God has every right to judge and overcome evil
 - a. God will judge every person, people group, and nation opposed to Him
 - b. In judgement, God is preparing for the ultimate exodus of His people
 - c. God's partial judgement demonstrates mercy and warns of final judgement
3. Live in light of God's attentive presence
 - a. Live a life of confession and repentance
 - b. Live a life of prayer and intercession
