EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Technical Director (Full Time)

We are looking for a full time Technical Director (TD) who is passionate about implementing technology to create environments that engage and inspire people to worship and pursue a closer relationship with God. They will be responsible for the execution of all weekend services and events from a technical standpoint (Audio, Video, and Lighting) including overseeing all the technical systems and teams at Willingdon. Experience required in the planning and operation of audio mixing and processing, broadcast video, media environments, stage lighting operation and implementation and the procurement and maintenance of all technical equipment.

Video Producer (Part Time)

We are looking for a part-time Video Producer who has a desire to create visually engaging videos that support the various ministries. The Video Producer is responsible for overseeing and implementing the video capture of weekend services and events and video content creation. Qualifications include, but are not limited to, a strong understanding of various video systems and infrastructures, experience in operating both cameras and video switchers in a live broadcast environment, and a strong knowledge in utilizing software video editors such as Final Cut/Motion and/or Premiere/After Effects.

See the full job postings online at willingdon.org/employment-opportunities.

Interested applicants may submit their cover letter and resume to hr@willingdon.org

March 14 &amp; 15, 2020

If you do a quick search online about anger and how to deal with anger, you'll find tons of results. There are all kinds of suggestions and techniques from all sorts of philosophical and religious backgrounds.

Today we are going to look at what the Bible has to say about anger. Is it sinful? What makes it sinful? Can humans experience righteous anger? What do we do with anger when we experience it?

Be slow to anger

Be quick to let go of it

Be motivated by love
