Sermon Title: What do we do when good things happen to bad people?

Psalm 37 (Pew Bible Page: 466)

Pastor Willy Reimer

Don't you hate injustice? I know I do. We experience or feel injustice when we experience or witness something that we think is unfair. When we feel that our rights or the rights of another have been violated. In Psalm 37 King David addresses the questions that people have been asking for years, what do we do when good things happen to bad people? Psalm 37 gives us insight into this age old question and provides us with truths to guide how we are to live in spite of the injustice we see and experience today.

What should we do when it seems like wicked people are prospering?

1. Because of the work of the Holy Spirit in us we can truly Rest in God's Love
2. Psalm 37 reminds us that, You Reap What You Sow
3. We can live with confidence because The Righteous Live Beyond Their Circumstances
4. We have hope because, God's Plan and Purposes Will Prevail
