Even though they aren't with us anymore, dinosaurs are all around us in culture, classrooms, and museums. History tells of giant beasts roaming the earth and sea. Where did they all go? What can we know about dinosaurs from their bones, their stories – and what does God have to say about them? Today we'll see what we can learn about dinosaurs from God, and what we can learn about God from dinosaurs.

- God is the Creator of Everything
- God is the Giver of Life
- God is the Ruler over Death
- God is the Redeemer of All
