The Holy Spirit Came

Acts 2:1-13

THE THREE T's

Draw a check mark when you have completed the task!

Today We Learned:

Not long after Jesus went to heaven, the people were celebrating a Jewish holiday called the Pentecost. The disciples were praying together when they heard a sound like a strong rushing wind. It was so loud that it filled the whole house. They started to speak in languages they did not know. They looked at one another in surprise when they saw flames of fire above their heads. God used wind and fire to show them that His Spirit had come, and would always be with them. The Holy Spirit will be their helper, comforter and guide. Jesus kept his promise.
