

The Kingdom of Another Order – Pastor Brett Landry – Matthew 22:1-33

NOTE FROM PASTOR JONATHAN

Hey Life Groups,

I know many missed out on worshipping together last Sunday. If you don't know, someone hit a pole on Willingdon Avenue and police blocked the street. It also caused our building to lose power. The roads being unsafe and having no electricity meant we couldn't have our 10:00 and 11:45 services. We're sorry for the inconvenience and hope this Sunday is smooth!

QUESTION OVERVIEW

Please select whatever questions you feel will help your group dig deeper into the sermon and passage.

Let's Warm Up: Questions to break the ice.

1. Have you ever hosted an event or gathering where nobody showed up? How did it feel?
2. How would you react to a celebrity or royalty wedding invitation?
3. Have you dressed inappropriately for an occasion? How did you feel?

Let's Get Started: Questions to start thinking about the main themes.

4. How can you draw the line between good and bad life compartmentalizing?
5. Why is God so patient in these parables?

Let's Dig In: Questions to discuss the passage and how we can respond.

6. Why was the guy without the wedding garment kicked out?
7. What tempts us to reject God's invitation?
8. Pastor Brett said, "The invitation to the party is radically inclusive, anyone can come, but the terms of the attendance are radically exclusive – you come through Jesus, or you don't come at all." Does this statement bring you relief or worry? Why?
9. What would it look like for you to put on Jesus' righteousness?
10. Pastor Brett said, "This invitation isn't based on how good you've been, or how well you've lived in the past – it's not based on what you've done or what you've left undone, it's based on the grace of the King who opens his doors to the good and bad alike." Who in your life needs to hear this Good News?
