

NOTE FROM PASTOR JONATHAN

Happy Easter! He is risen, indeed! I pray that the Good News of Jesus' resurrection will impact your life throughout the week.

Don't forget to sign up for Outreach Day (<https://willingdon.org/events/outreach-day/>)! I hope your group can serve together and share the Gospel with our community.

We'll be doing a sermon series on FAMILY, DISCIPLESHIP, and MISSION. It'll be a great time for all of us to get on the same page and see where God is leading us.

QUESTION OVERVIEW

Please select any questions you feel will help your group dig deeper into God's Word.

Check out my Notes and Commentary (<https://willingdon.org/lifegroups/leaders-corner>).

Let's Warm Up: Questions to break the ice.

1. Do you have a favorite keepsake or memento that reminds you of a significant moment or event in your life?
2. What is the most meaningful monument or memorial you have visited? What message did you receive from it?
3. Are you FOR or AGAINST surprises (like surprise parties)? Try to convince people with the opposite view.

Let's Get Started: Questions to start thinking about the main themes.

4. What do people around you believe about Jesus' death and resurrection?
5. Consider a non-Christian in your life. How would you explain Jesus' death and resurrection to them?

Let's Dig In: Questions to discuss the passage and how we can respond.

6. What costs/risks did Joseph take to bury Jesus' body? What does that reveal about what he thought about Jesus?
7. If you were with the women, how would you respond to the angel, the empty tomb, or seeing Jesus alive?
8. What are the implications if Jesus didn't come back from the dead?
9. Pastor Ray gave evidence for Jesus' resurrection. Which provides the most assurance for you?
10. What steps can you take to give your heart to Jesus?
