

There once was a man with two sons. The younger son said, "Give me my share of the inheritance."

The father gave him his property and all that would belong to him.

The son then went to a distant country and spent all he had on worthless things. When his money was gone, he got a job feeding pigs. Even though he was hungry, no one gave him anything to eat.

The young man came to his senses. "What? Am I crazy? My father has enough food for everyone and here I am about to die of hunger!"

The boy returned home and asked his father to forgive him. The father was full of mercy. He forgave his son and welcomed him with a hug. Then he celebrated with a big party because his son was home again! (Lk 15:11-32).
