BIBLE STUDY QUESTIONS

1. Take some time to catch up. How did this week go? What steps of obedience did you take and what has God been teaching you?
2. Take time to talk about what stood out to you from Pastor James' Sermon. Was there something you learned? Something that challenged you? A highlight?
3. Jesus says that the Church in Philadelphia has only a little power. What is an area of your life in which you don't have full control of the outcome of things? How do you trust God in those areas of life?
4. When you face trials, are you more likely to pray to ask God to remove those trials from your life, or to give you the strength in the midst of those trials? Can you ask for both of these at the same time? Read Matthew 26:39 to see an example from Jesus.
5. How do you feel led to respond to this week's message and text? Are there steps of obedience you feel the Spirit asking you to take? How can we pray for you as a group?

GLOBAL PRAYER

Please pray for the short-term mission teams that are serving this week, in Brazil and Philippines. Pray for unity, strength, joy, and that the Lord will use these teams in wonderful ways for His glory.

March 9 & 10, 2019

In Revelation 3:7-13, Jesus has an important message for the church in Philadelphia and for us, but many of the phrases He uses can be difficult for us to make sense of. What is the “Key of David”? What is the “Synagogue of Satan”? What “open door” is Jesus talking about? And what does it mean to be a “pillar in the temple of God”? It is only once we understand all this that we can clearly hear the important message that Jesus has for us. The good news is that there is a way for this to happen.

To understand Jesus’ message, we need to look closely at...

1. The position of the church
2. The power of Jesus
3. The promises of Jesus
