April 29 &amp; 30, 2017

Three related words are mission, evangelization, and transformation. With which word do you most identify? Almost any corporation, non-profit organization, or church will have a mission statement. Mission has to do with individual or corporate purpose. Transformation echoes a desire for positive change in society (educational, social, and economic embetterment). Justice causes easily come to mind. Evangelization, however, is often considered to be a less welcome word. It is often equated with proselytization, the attempt to convert from one religion to another – a taboo in our Canadian culture. It is viewed as an expression of intolerance, disrespect, and arrogance. What is at the heart of Christ's mission?

For Christ's mission to be accomplished...

1. Disciples must be sent
2. Disciples must proclaim the good news of Jesus
3. People need to hear the message of Jesus through disciples
4. The hearers must believe in Jesus and call on Jesus

The mission of Christ is blocked when...

1. Disciples are not sent
2. Disciples are not equipped with the Gospel
3. Disciples are afraid of a negative response
4. Disciples do not have the same heart as Jesus toward the lost

Willingdon Church Elders
