July 8 & 9, 2017

In order for God to act on our behalf do we need to recognize His existence?
If we act independently and experience failure, does God abandon us?
Can we experience God when we are lonely, confused, and unsure of our identity?

The God who is mighty to save...

1. Acts on our behalf when we are fragile and vulnerable (v. 1-10)
2. Acts on our behalf when we fail and flee in fear (v. 11-15)
3. Acts on our behalf when we feel forgotten and disoriented (v. 11-22)
4. Not only hears and sees us, but also prepares to act and make Himself known (v. 23-25)
