September 9 &amp; 10, 2017

Willingdon Church says, "Come Fly with Us!" You may ask some questions in return. Who is the pilot? Does he know where he is going? What is the destination? Who is on this flight? If you imagine a flock of birds instead of a plane, you may engage in some personal reflection. Am I capable of flying? I'm testing my wings, but I feel very vulnerable. Every time I move toward flying, I'm sure I'm going to crash to the ground. What do you need to know to fly with us?

1. Know the pilot will keep his word to you and will get you to your destination
2. Know that if you go to the pilot, he will come to meet you
3. Know (remember) that the pilot got you on the plane and enabled you to fly
4. Know your identity was given by the pilot and pay careful attention to his voice
5. Know why you were called to fly and live it!
